TregoED is pleased to announce the appointment of Michael Curran-Hays as the new Executive Director. Michael joins TregoED from Kepner-Tregoe where he was a Practice Leader, Principal, and member of the KT Board. He led efforts in business process improvement, operational improvement, strategy formulation and capacity-building with a special focus on regulated industries. Michael has been a member of TregoED's Board since its inception and has a deep commitment to education and its ability to positively change lives. He hails from a family of educators and began his career as a middle school teacher in Tucson, AZ.

Kathryn Blackburn, Ed.D., TregoED's Executive Director for 16 years, will stay with TregoED as Executive Vice President of Leadership Services. She will continue her work helping school and district leaders learn and apply TregoED's proven strategies for successfully addressing strategic and operational challenges.

William Baldwin, CEO of Kepner-Tregoe and Chairman of the TregoED Board, attests, "Kathy has provided outstanding strategic, operational and financial leadership to TregoED over the last 16 years as our Executive Director. Her valued contributions to our client districts have been widely recognized and greatly appreciated. We are honored Kathy will continue her great work as a member of TregoED. We are excited that Michael has joined us as our new Executive Director. Michael brings a passion for education and extensive experience using our proprietary rational process methodologies and analytic approaches to enhance individual and organizational effectiveness. He will be a great addition to TregoED and asset to our client districts."

Who We Are
